SEPTEMBER

'And Jesus said to him, "If you can! All things are possible for one who believes." Mark 9:23

Some ways in which you can show hope at home:

Hope at home

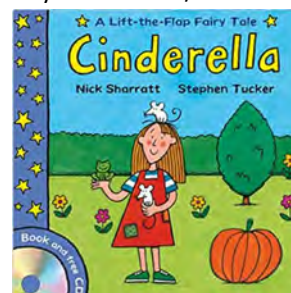

- Show hope by watching the news and praying for someone or something you have seen on it.
- Show hope by if you are losing in a game still believing you can win.
- Show hope by setting yourself a target to get better at something you find difficult.
- Show hope by not getting too down when something bad or difficult happens.

At school we have been reading these stories about Hope:

OCTOBER

Mark 12:31 Love your neighbour as yourself.

Some ways in which you can show kindness at home:

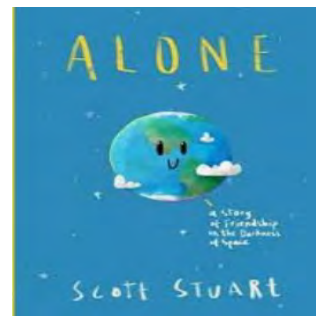

Try to listen to the feelings and opinions of others, even when you don't agree. A caring person treats people with kindness and respect. Think about how your actions affect others. A kind person helps others in need. Volunteer to help out with jobs around the house. Being kind to someone else or ourselves is an important part at becoming the best human beings we can be. We can focus our care and attention to the world around us. A kind person thinks of the feelings of others before themselves. They are there when others need help or advice .

NOVEMBER

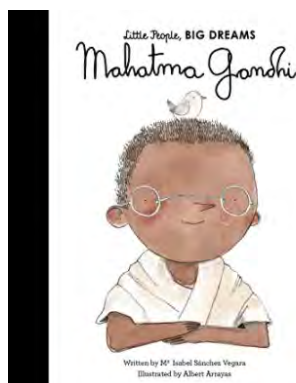

'Peace begins with a smile.' Mother Teresa

Someways in which you can show Peace at home:

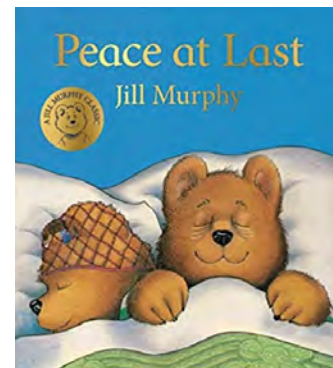

- Take some quiet time for yourself to be at peace with your thoughts.
- Try listening to calm music to help you relax.
- Be respectful when others in your house need some peace and quiet.
- Try to sit still and relax all your muscles in your body. Think of a happy place.
- Peace is being free from anyone or anything disturbing us. It is taking time to calm down on our own and taking the time to enjoy the quiet.
- A peaceful person can calm down quickly if they get too excited as well as talking in a calm way. A peaceful person also knows how to listen to their thoughts and act in a mature way about them.

'To be one, to be united is a great thing. But to respect the right to be different is maybe even greater.' Bono

Some ways in which you can show Respect at home:

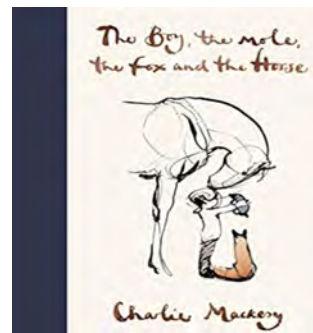

- Listen when others are speaking and try not to talk over them.
- Treat your family members like you would want to be treated.
- Use kind words especially around younger brothers or sisters .
- Appreciate one thing you are good at.
- Hold the door open for adults in your family.
- Treat people in a kind and gentle way. A respectful person understands that as humans we are all equal.

Ephesians 4:32 be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving each other, just as God in Christ also has forgiven you.

Talk about this question with someone in your family:

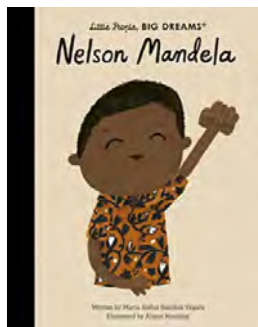

“It takes a strong person to say sorry, and an even stronger person to forgive.”

Have you ever found forgiving someone very hard to do?

What did you talk about?

And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up. Galatians 6:9

Some ways in which you can show patience at home:

- Give up your place in a queue for someone else.
- Wait patiently for something exciting to come.
- Save up some pennies each week for something special.
- Listen to someone talking to you without interrupting them.
- Take a long time over something so that it is really special, (making a model, drawing a picture, doing your homework.)

Koinonia means sharing, community and friendship. You can show koinonia at home by

- Saying hello to your neighbours.
- Doing a job at home that someone else usually does like doing the washing up or making your bed.
- Working as a team to help someone else.
- By making some biscuits and sharing them with your family and friends.
