

Kibworth British Values

Rule of Law

Classroom rules that are created together.
Class helpers.
Reward systems and good manners award.
Celebration assemblies.
Behaviour policy.
Links with the community.
Uniform policy.
Warning Zone visit about rules to keep you safe.

Tolerance of Others

ELSA
ASHA charity that school supports.
Inclusion policy.
Links with the community. Invite police, firefighters, and doctors into school.
International school award.
Teaching of different religions through RE. Adapting for children with other beliefs.
Christian Values and collective worship themes.
Visits to different places of worship, look at celebrations of different religious festivals, Indian drumming workshops.
Autism awareness days, charity days.
PSHCE units on relationships.
Christmas productions and Easter celebrations.
Flick training.

Democracy

School council and school captain elections.
Encouraged to listen to others.
Topics: WW2, Greek and Roman Empires, Tudors, The Queen and Ancient Egypt.
School rules and class rules that children decide together.
Children work in partners, groups and also take part in debate work.
Parents consulted on school holidays.
Wellbeing survey for children and staff.

Individual Liberty

All-inclusive curriculum.
Assemblies including celebration assembly.
Values displayed in school including Being the best you can be!
School council who do a lot of work for charities, faith followers, reading buddies, learning detectives, sports leaders, ICT leaders and friendship officers.
Invited guests into school, representatives from the church and a home school agreement.
Promote independence of the children. Children feel valued and encouraged to share views, ideas and feelings.

Mutual Respect

Behaviour policy; promotes respect of each other.
PSHCE sessions celebrating difference and respecting others,
Parents as partners.
Talk partners to encourage listening to each other.
Friendship officers.
Support national charities: Comic Relief, /children in /need and ASHA.
Play leaders who work with younger children and sports ambassadors who promote respect and fair play.
E Safety.

